Previous PBM+C Lifetime Achievement Award recipients include photographer Harry Benson, South Florida arts and culture advocate Rena Blades, artist Bruce Helander, and philanthropist Beth Rudin De Woody. Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens will once again serve as a satellite venue for the fair and in celebration of Women's History Month, Long-Sharp Gallery presents sculptHER, an innovative exhibit featuring works by four female sculptors: Julia Ibbini, Nicole Pietrantonio, Cha Jong Rye, and Miriam Londoño. The exhibit will debut March 22 through June 2023.

Rasmussen will be discussing a selection of 20 art works from one of the world's most acclaimed Chicano artists, Rupert Garcia. The noteworthy group of works is being presented at the fair by the museum's Corcoran Legacy Collection. The collection, which was donated to the museum by the Corcoran Gallery of Art as part of a larger 9,000-piece gift, will be on view at the fair's entrance throughout the weekend.

"We are delighted to once again welcome the art world to Palm Beach," shares Palm Beach Modern + Contemporary Director Nick Korniloff. "With every passing year, the fair's reach evolves as the lens of collectors, celebrities and art world luminaries focus on Palm Beach and West Palm Beach. The fair's impact continues to expand and flourish as we enter what is guaranteed to be a monumental sixth edition."
